ASSENTED-TO MOTION TO SEAL ADMINISTRATIVE RECORD

Pursuant to Rule 5.3(B) and Rule 7.2 of the Local Rules of the United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts, defendant Massachusetts Bureau of Special Education Appeals (“BSEA”) respectfully moves to file under seal the administrative record, which contains information identifying the full first and last name of the student (referred to in the caption as “C.D.”), in order to protect the student’s privacy interests. Due to the voluminous nature of the administrative record (which consists of almost 5,000 pages) and given the burden that would result from redacting the administrative record, the BSEA requests that the Court allow the BSEA to file the entire administrative record under seal. In accordance with Local Rule 7.2, the BSEA will await the Court’s ruling on this motion, prior to filing the administrative record with the Court.

Pursuant to Rule 7.2, the BSEA further requests that the administrative record remain sealed until the conclusion of the case, at which time the parties will arrange to retrieve the administrative record from the Court.

Counsel for Plaintiffs and counsel for defendants Natick Public Schools have assented to this motion.
